

May 9, 2020

Dear Bachelor of General Studies Graduate,

Congratulations on achieving a significant milestone! Graduating from college is a major life accomplishment, and we applaud you for achieving this educational goal! You have built the foundation for a more enriching life for yourself, your family and others you may encounter.

Your journey to this point may have seemed challenging as you balanced rigorous course loads, work obligations, and family responsibilities. Through it all, you have demonstrated your ability to master one of life's greatest skills – time management. Your determination to reach your goal is symbolic of the value that you place on education. As you graduate, promise yourself that you will continue developing this value as a life-long learner.

Please take this opportunity to thank your family and friends who supported you throughout your educational journey.

On behalf of the University of Connecticut, congratulations! We are so very proud of you!

Sincerely,

Peter Diplock, Ph.D.
Assistant Vice Provost
Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning

James Hill, Ph.D.
Executive Director
Bachelor of General Studies Program